Pre-Kindy Playgroup

What is Little Leaps Pre-Kindy?

Learn n' Play and Little Leaps are free educational playgroups that helps prepare children and their parents or caregivers for kindergarten. Throughout the year, children engage in fun, play-based activities designed to help them develop independence as well as the social and physical skills that makes for a successful start to kindergarten. Participants will also benefit from visits from health professionals and service providers to offer any support.

Parents or caregivers must attend all sessions.

In Pre-Kindy your child will have the opportunity to learn the following:

- Social skills, such as sharing and turn-taking,
- Joining in on group activities,
- Learning how to transition from activities.
